2006 ASB Meeting

The 67th Annual Meeting of the Association of Southeastern Biologists was held 29–31 March 2006 in Gatlinburg, Tennessee, hosted by the University of Tennessee.

Our chapter sponsored and awarded the Elsie Quarterman–Catherine Keever Award for best student poster and the Eugene P. Odum Award for best student paper. Drs. Frank Gilliam and Nicole Turrill Welch, respectively, chaired these awards committees and thank those who served on the committees and judged the posters and papers. Winners of the awards will be announced in the July issue of the ESA Bulletin.

The SE-ESA Chapter Luncheon was held on 31

March 2006, in Gatlinburg, Tennessee. Minutes of the business meeting will appear in the July issue of the ESA Bulletin.

2006 ESA Annual Meeting

The 91st Annual Meeting of the Ecological Society of America will be held

6–11 August 2006, in Memphis, Tennessee. Check the July issue of the ESA Bulletin for date, time, and location of our Chapter's Brown Bag Lunch.

Membership renewal and award support

Please remember to renew your membership in the Southeastern Chapter when you renew your ESA membership. Your donations to the Quarterman-Keever Fund and the Eugene P. Odum Fund support our Chapter's student awards at the ASB meetings.
